

MANUEL DE JESUS GARCIA, P.E. - Associate & V.P. Civil Dept.

EXPERIENCE

Mr. Garcia's broad design and construction experience includes projects within the transportation, utilities infrastructure, and site development sectors. His Site Development experience includes projects for Industrial and Commercial Facilities, Residential Developments, and Health Care Facilities. Previous employment within the construction materials testing industry provided Mr. Garcia with specific training experience in the testing of concrete, steel, soils, and asphalt within the construction industry. Mr. Garcia has held previous certification in the testing of concrete as prescribed by the American Concrete Institute and ASTM. Additional certifications in the testing of soils through ASTM and Troxler training programs has provided significant of exposure in wide variety of testing methods and procedures. In addition to testing, Mr. Garcia has additionally provided threshold type inspections involving steel placement, pile monitoring, and concrete placement.

PRACTICE AREAS

- Civil Design
- Contract Administration
- Scheduling
- Value Engineering
- Forensic Design
- Material Testing
- Utility Infrastructure
- Site Development